

Information Bureaus

All around the country there are bridge players who know lots about the Minocqua Matches, — which are the best ways to go; what is the fishing tackle to take; who wants transportation and who wants passenger partners.

You may write to the State secretary, Madeline L. Anderson, Shore hotel, Milwaukee, or drop in to "chin" with any of the following persons can tell you all about it:

- In Chicago, see Bill McGhee, Dr. Maier, Mary Courtright, Maynard Ac or Dr. Davidson.
- In Detroit, see George Alderton, Lewis Fremont, Sid Heinrick, or Whiteheads.
- In Kansas City.....see Anne Bryant or Inez Ch
- In Tulsa.....see Brad Mu
- In Des Moines.....see Harold Rohner or Harold MacLaug
- In Washington, D. C.....see John R. Moore (Soil Conservation Co
- In Minneapolis.....see R. L. Thatcher, Bill Jarvis, Jim Rayn
- In Fargo, N. Dak.....see Howard St
- In Indianapolis.....see Dr. and Mrs. I
- In Columbus.....see Dr. Louis A
- In Escanaba.....see Burt E
- In Houghton.....see Mrs. Leigh S
- In Waukegan.....see Verna Dick and George Scho
- In Toledo.....see Jack De
- In Cleveland.....see Russ Bak
- In Omaha.....see Harold Lande
- In Duluth.....see Mrs. Gunnar Nas
- In Buffalo.....see Howard Woolw
- In Cincinnati.....see Mildred Wat
- In New York.....see Al Sobel, Bill Du

A Challenge To Rubber Bridge Players!

Four Minocquans offer a challenge purse of a hundred dollars to compete with any four players offering a similar amount, from another city, in team of four in rubber score games, as afternoon bridge diversion.

These games have no connection with the WSBA or the ACBI and will be made up entirely among individual players. Those teams interested should correspond directly with

DR. G. E. HUBER,
Minocqua, Wis.